Bairnsdale 4 Bedroom House - Renovate & Possible Development Site

This four bedroom home is set on a roomy block in central Bairnsdale. If you are looking at a possible development site, having two driveways it has the potential to have a battle-axe subdivision subject to council approval. The home has many original timber doors, architraves and even a timber built in bed plus some retro fixtures and fittings giving it plenty of character. The main bathroom has been updated while there is a second shower in the laundry and a separate toilet. Renovate the kitchen and rip up the carpet to have a polished timber floor look. Check out the floorplan attached which includes a sunroom and walk in pantry or perhaps a study area. Older style garage and shedding. If you are keen to add value, the opportunities are numerous.
